03 • Admissions Quota

- Admission offers are determined based on applicants' academic strengths. Admitted students are selected without a quota limit, and no additional admission offers will be made.
- The number of applicants and acceptance rates will NOT be disclosed.

04 • Admissions Criteria

- The admission decisions are made by comprehensively evaluating academic strengths, major aptitude, language proficiency, academic and extracurricular activities based on the submitted documents.
 - Late submissions will not be accepted.
 - The assessment is based on the documents uploaded to the online application website.
 - After preliminary admission decisions are made, original copies of the uploaded documents must be sent by post or in-person.
- Depending on the policy of specific colleges or departments, applicants may be asked to undertake interviews, examinations, and/or performance tests. In such cases, applicants will be individually notified of the details.
 - For further inquiries, please contact the corresponding department (see page 32).
- Admission data, including the applicants' (dis)qualifications, assessment details, and reasons for rejection, will NOT be disclosed.

05 • Precautions for Applicants

- The application fee is non-refundable and cannot be waived (Article 42-3 (Admission Fees) of the Enforcement Decree of the Higher Education Act).
- Multiple applications are not allowed. (Applicants will be disqualified if multiple applications are submitted.)
- For information on the availability of English courses in their desired program, applicants should contact the corresponding program/department directly.
- Admitted students wishing to take a leave of absence after enrollment should contact their college directly.
- The preliminary admission offer is only valid for the current semester and cannot be deferred to a future semester.

- After admission, it is mandatory for admitted students to review the information in the "Reference Guide for Admitted Students" provided on the admission website.
- Admitted students who are notified by the SNU Language Education Institute (LEI) to take the Korean Proficiency Test are required to take the test on the scheduled date.
 - Students may have restrictions on their course selections depending on the test results.
 - Applicants may contact the SNU Language Education Institute (LEI) for inquiries about the Korean Proficiency Test and each college for inquiries about restrictions on course selections.
- Applicants may be disqualified if:
 - They are expected to graduate at the point of application but fail to submit a graduation certificate after admission.
 - They submit their graduation certificate and transcript without Apostille or authentication by the Korean Embassy or Consulate.
 - Preliminarily Admitted Applicants fail to submit some or all of the original documents.
 - They pay tuition fees to two or more domestic or international universities.
 - They are still registered at another university even after the date of admission to SNU (regarded as dual enrollment).
- Admitted students who fail to register (complete tuition payment) during the designated period will be regarded as having no intention to register.
- If any dishonest means, such as submitting false, forged, or altered documents, is discovered at any stage of the admission process, the admission will be revoked—even after enrollment.

Reference: 1. Original Document (with Notarized Translation)

- Original Document: Documents issued directly by the corresponding institution with a signature or official seal of the authority.
- Original Document with Notarized Translation: Documents translated into Korean or English by an authorized notary office with a notary seal on it.
 - For originals in a language other than Korean or English, submit a notarized translation along with the original.

Reference: 2. Apostille/Authentication from the Korean Embassy/Consulate

• Apostille Convention

A multilateral agreement aimed at facilitating the international use of official documents among signatory countries. Instead of complex certification procedures such as consular legalization by foreign embassies, the agreement allows the country of origin to authenticate the document.

- Official title: Convention Abolishing the Requirement of Legalization for Foreign Public Document.
- For information about Apostille organs for each country: www.hcch.net → Members & Parties → HCCH Members.
- Applicants from Korean universities are exempt from Apostille requirements; however, they must submit the original documents of enrollment certificates, (expected) graduation certificates, and transcripts.

1. Applicants from Member Countries

- Apostille-required documents: (Expected) graduation certificates and transcripts. (Applicants who have completed their academic program from universities in China should also include degree certificates.)
- Issuing authority: Designated institution by the respective country's government.
- Submission procedures: Obtain an "Apostille Verification Certificate" for the above-mentioned documents from the designated institution in the respective country.
※ The Apostille Verification Certificate can be substituted with consular authentication by the Korean Embassy or Consulate in the respective country.

2. Applicants from Non-Member Countries

- Consular authentication required documents: (Expected) graduation certificates and transcripts. (Applicants who have completed their academic program from universities in China should also include degree certificates.)
- Issuing authority: Korean Embassy/Consulate in the respective country.
- Submission procedures: Obtain "Consular Authentication" for the above-mentioned documents from the Korean Embassy or Consulate in the respective country.

3. Notice

- Documents not written in Korean or English must be translated into Korean or English and notarized.
- Original documents obtained with Apostille/Consular authentication must be submitted as is. (Copies of the original with Apostille/Consular authentication will not be accepted.)

Reference: 3. Submission of TOEFL MyBest scores, IELTS One Skill Retake

Applicants who choose to submit TOEFL or IELTS scores as proof of language proficiency may submit TOEFL MyBest Scores or IELTS One Skill Retake scores, respectively.

• TOEFL MyBest Scores

- MyBest Scores combine an applicant's highest scores for each section from multiple TOEFL iBT test administrations.
- When submitting MyBest Scores, the test dates of all four sections must be on or after July 9, 2024.

• IELTS One Skill Retake

- IELTS One Skill Retake allows an applicant to retake one skill from a single IELTS test, and the retake score is combined with the original scores from the other three skills.
- When submitting One Skill Retake scores, the test dates of all four skills must be on or after July 9, 2024.
